

Confession

Characters: Prince Andrew, Reporter

---

R: Good evening ladies and gentleman, tonight we have been invited by his Royal Highness, Prince Andrew, in regards to the recent allegations against him. Let's get started. Your Royal Highness, how did you meet Mr. Epstein?

A: I met Jeffy- Mr. Epstein through his girlfriend Mrs. Maxwell. I met her in a foursome at Cambridge, and by foursome as we used to say in those days, I meant a 4 person Class Council regarding... Stuff. So that's how I met him.

R: Were you close friends with Mr. Epstein? And how do you feel about him after the allegations.

A: Well I think close is a tremendous stretch, I personally wouldn't say we were close. Sure I have been in his private plane a few times and I stayed in his Mansion more than Mummy's Palace but no we were not close friends. And I personally feel- with how he has painted himself in an ungentlemanly manner-

R: Ungentlemanly? He is a registered Sex-Offender.

(Pause)

A: Yes, I was being kind, I meant a mischief-maker.

(Reporter looks at him, pauses, next question)

R: Well statements suggest otherwise. It says here you stayed at his Mansion in March a total of 4 days.

A: No that couldn't have happened because that day, which was about the 17th of March, time 8:30, I was with my daughter Beatrice and we were at a Pizza Express in Woking. I remember buying a Her Majesty's Stuffed-Crust Surprise, which is an unusual thing for me to do. Most unusual.

R: Well for evidence we have a photo here which shows you and Mrs. Giuffre, which she recalled you being profoundly sweaty quote "He reminded me of a Fish. All wet and sweaty and he smelled quite a bit too." What do you have to say?

A: Ah! Ah! Uh, that's the peculiar detail. Now I have a very special medical condition which is that I can't sweat. That was probably caused because at the Falklands War I was fighting, a cockroach in my cabin and I accidentally sprayed an amount of bug spray at my armpits causing them to excrete that green glossy-

R: Enough, Prince Andrew. We're thankful of your detailed description Your Royal Dryness thank you for this interview.

---

The End